- 2 small flower darlings
- 2 large sunburst flowers
- 2 small sunburst flowers
- ½ strip darling ruffles
- 2 dangle elements

SUPPLIES NEEDED

- 9" x 5" white/cream felt rectangle
- 4" x 4" white tulle/netting
- 3 small pearls (big enough to fit in the sunburst flowers)
- glue gun/sticks
- scissors
- ribbon
- paper piercer (or something to poke small holes into felt)
- 6 (10 mm) jump rings

TO MAKE LAYOUT:

STEP ONE

Hot glue Parisian Anthology flair rhinestone button to large sunburst flower.

STEP TWO

Hot glue pearls to the other large Parisian Anthology sunburst flower & the 2 small PA sunburst flowers. Set aside.

STEP THREE

Add 1 jump ring to the 2 Parisian Anthology dangle elements. Set aside.

STEP FOUR

On your felt piece, design your wearable art with 2 small Parisian Anthology flower darlings, 4 Parisian Anthology sunburst flowers & bits of the Parisian Anthology ruffle darlings.

STEP FIVE

Starting on one side hot glue pieces down with just one little dot of glue so as to leave some edges available to add tulle later. Use your Parisian Anthology ruffle darlings to fill in areas & give some added interest.

STEP SIX

Cut small circles of tulle & glue in areas around elements to 'fill in'.

STEP SEVEN

Once you love the way it looks, add more glue to make sure it's secure.

STEP EIGHT

Trim felt around your artwork.

STEP NINE

With paper piercer, punch holes in felt for jump rings. Attach 2 jump rings on each side of felt piece.

STEP TEN

Cut off 12" of black ribbon & tie around 1 Parisian Anthology dangle element with jump ring.

STEP ELEVEN

Fold black ribbon in half & cut so you have 2 pieces.

STEP TWELVE

Thread each piece of ribbon on each side through the jump rings to the midsection of the ribbon. Tie onto each jump ring making several knots so it's a big chunky knot.

STEP THIRTEEN

Tie a bow with the dangle element on 1 side of your necklace to add flair & voila! Tie your Parisian Anthology necklace on for a fashion statement work of art!
